Gary Mayse

Mr. Gary Mayse is a 1986 graduate of Houston High School. Upon graduation, Gary attended the University of Dayton where he received his bachelor's degree in Sports Management, Coaching, and Business Marketing. Gary has worked in the Sports Entertainment Industry, primarily as a Baseball Executive, with Mandalay Baseball Properties, The Dayton Dragons Professional Baseball Team, and CSE for the past 20 plus years. During his career in the sport of baseball, Gary has represented ten different Minor League organizations and worked alongside some of the top Major League franchises such as the New York Yankees, Seattle Mariners, and Cincinnati Reds.

Serving as the Executive Vice President of Mandalay Baseball Properties, Gary managed the company's operations for their Minor League business portfolio and acted as owner representative on 3 major new ballpark developments totaling more than $115 million. Prior to his responsibilities with Mandalay, Gary was one of three key Executives involved in the franchise start up for the Dayton Dragons. Following the 2003 Baseball season, he was named "Midwest League Executive of the Year." In 2004, Gary was selected as a "40 Under 40" award winner by the Dayton Business Journal.

Gary currently resides in Washington Township with his wife Diane and three children – Elijah, Hannah, and Silas. When not at a baseball game himself, Gary enjoys being a spectator and cheering his kids on at their many sporting events at Xavier University, Alter High School, and St. Charles.
